

Social Studies Summer Reading 2019 - 2020
Maritime/Cambridge

The following titles are required reading. Teachers will assume that students have completed all required reading BEFORE the first day of class. Students should report to school prepared to discuss each text. Summer reading quizzes take place during the first weeks of class.

9th -12th Grade AP Human Geography—Maritime and Cambridge

Please obtain one of the AP Human Geography review books. The Princeton Review, Kaplan, 5 Steps to a 5, Barron's, and AMSCO versions are all acceptable review books. Please read about Unit 1 of the course and be familiar with the course outline, concepts, and the breakdown of the AP exam.

9th Grade Honors World History—Maritime and Cambridge

Please read up to page 53 of A Short History of the World by Christopher Lascelles.

10th Grade AP World History—Maritime and Cambridge

Please read A Short History of the World by Christopher Lascelles.

10th Grade AP European History—Maritime and Cambridge

Please purchase the AMSCO Advanced Placement European History book from PerfectionLearning.com and read the first chapter of the book. There will be a quiz on the reading on the first day of school. This book can be ordered directly from the publisher at <https://www.perfectionlearning.com/social-studies/advanced-placement/european-history/amscos-advanced-placement-european-history-81677.html>

11th Grade AP United States History—Maritime

Please read A Short History of the United States by Robert Remini. You are to keep a journal on the reading that you are conducting, and on this journal you are to focus on the themes essential to the AP course. An explanation of all of the themes can be found here: <https://secure-media.collegeboard.org/digitalServices/pdf/ap/ap-us-history-course-and-exam-description.pdf>.

In your journal, for each chapter you are to read and find examples of the 7 themes and in a couple of sentences explain how that example represents the theme. Then you are to give the page number you found the example on. Please see Mr. Couzo for more details.

12th Grade AP United States Government and Politics—Maritime

Please purchase the AMSCO Advanced Placement United States Government and Politics book from PerfectionLearning.com and read Federalist 10, Federalist 51, Federalist 70, Federalist 78, Brutus 1 (Anti-Federalist Essay), and Martin Luther King, Jr.'s Letter from the Birmingham Jail. These readings can all be found in the book.
